

How to use this worksheet: You can photocopy this page onto card then write multiplication problems and answers on each label. Place the labels in an accessible position for your child to practice with them regularly.